MESSAGE FROM THE CEO

Airmic is the established “go to” place for risk and insurance thought leadership, learning and networking - we create value wherever we interact.

Whether you are in the risk management profession, academia, regulation, or a peer profession, whether you are starting out or in a leadership role, Airmic will help you to make better risk and insurance informed decisions.

There has been a rise in the profile of risk management and risk professionals during the pandemic. We have seen our members step up to support their organisations at a strategic level - and there has been an increase in the level of respect for the profession with many examples of great collaboration with organisation leadership and peers.

The insurance industry is rising to the challenges of the future world: whether this be physical issues such as climate change or intangible issues such as information or reputation, the industry is investing in knowledge, applying the potential of technology, and developing new business models - in summary, the industry is repurposing to meet the demands of our members, and their organisations.

We have excellent relationships the Government, our regulators, and affiliate associations including the Chartered Insurance Institute (CII), the Association of British Insurers (ABI) and the London Market Group (LMG), as well as the Chartered Institute of Internal Auditors (CIIA) and the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA). We have a close liaison with risk management associations in Europe, the US, Southern Africa, and Asia Pacific.

We are proud to be a founding member of the global Resilience Alliance with colleagues in business continuity, security, workers and facilities - the BCI, ASIS and IWFm.

As CEO, I am proud and delighted to be leading Airmic - it is exciting to be part of a profession at the heart of such fundamental developments and change!

Julia Graham, CEO, Airmic

WHAT OUR MEMBERS SAY

Over the years Airmic has provided me with a multitude of benefits helping me to grow throughout my chosen career. These have included supporting my learning on specific topics, access to subject matter experts, networking and exchanging ideas with my peers. I would recommend Airmic membership as a must for all those who have an interest in managing and/or financing risk within their businesses from the top down. There really is something for all levels.

Kate Loades, VP Insurance, Risk and Health & Safety, Liberty Global

Being a member of Airmic is something I would recommend to any risk or insurance professional. Having access to Airmic training has allowed me develop my knowledge of risk and insurance, this is enhanced thanks to the ability to learn directly from experts across multiple organisations who work with Airmic

Ben Cooney, ERM & Insurance senior manager, British American Tobacco

Airmic membership has benefited my career with an array of accessible training material, through a range of platforms, including an informed and current podcast. It also provides you with opportunities to access and question best in class speakers across a range of different topics. The networking enables you to get to know other risk managers and learn from their struggles and experiences. Airmic provides the stimulation to think differently and enables you to go back to the business with an enquiring mind, which is crucial for all Risk and Insurance professionals.

Dominic Bedford, Risk manager, Britvic

Airmic supports me in my professional development through the excellent range of technical writing, academies and workshops. More importantly, it supports my individual personal development by connecting me with a wide range of peers. This network both supports me and challenges me to become a better risk manager.

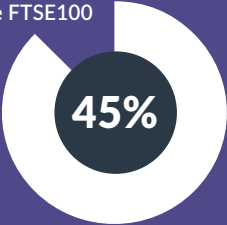

Katie Moore, Director of risk management, Live Nation Entertainment
