

Geopolitical instability and evolving liability risks

Webinar | How businesses can use insurance to mitigate emerging risks

In today's world, businesses must contend with geopolitical instability and an evolving landscape of liability risks.

Join the Hogan Lovells insurance team for an insightful session on how insurance of various types can mitigate these challenges.

We will explore export credit and political risk insurance and their role in mitigating geopolitical risk. We will also discuss key evolving liability risks, such as the impact of artificial intelligence, climate change, and cyber threats, offering valuable tips and tricks to maximise your insurance protections and safeguard your business together with how transactional and contingent risk insurance can help protect businesses involved in M&A transactions. Discover how to navigate these complex issues and use insurance effectively to protect against them.
